CONDITIONS OF SALE

First.—The highest bidder to be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders the lot in dispute to be put up again and re-sold at the discretion of the auctioneer. The auctioneer's decision to be final. The auctioneer reserves the right to make any alteration in the catalogue.

Second.—No person to advance less than one shilling ; above £2, two shillings and sixpence ; and so on in proportion as the auctioneer shall decide. The auctioneer may, in his discretion, refuse to accept the bidding of any person.

Third.—In the case of any lot on which there is a reserve the auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the Vendor.

Fourth.—Each purchaser is at the time of purchase to give in his name and address, and pay a deposit of five shillings in the pound in part payment or the whole of the purchase-money (if required), in default of which the lot purchased may be put up again and re-sold at the discretion of the auctioneer.

Fifth.—The auctioneer is not responsible for the correct description, genuineness, or authenticity of, or for any default or defect in, any lot, and gives no warranty whatever, expressed or implied, and no compensation shall be payable in respect to any such matters.

Sixth.—Each Lot shall be at the purchaser's risk in all respects from the fall of the hammer, and shall be paid for in full, and taken away with all faults and errors of every description, and neither the Vendor nor Stevens's Auction Rooms Ltd., shall be liable for any damage to the same, or loss from whatever cause arising. The Purchaser shall pay a storage charge of 1/- per Lot per day for any lot not taken away within two days after the Sale.

Lastly.—Upon failure to comply with the above conditions, the money deposited shall be forfeited ; any lot remaining uncleared may be re-sold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale, together with all incidental expenses and charges, shall be paid by the defaulter.

NO LOTS WILL BE TRANSFERRED.

The Clerk of the Sale has Authority to refuse Cheques.

ETHNOLOGICAL OBJECTS, &c.

(From a private collector).

- 289 A most interesting and historic contemporary sepia drawing of the "first" lighthouse ; it was built on the Eddystone, opposite Plymouth, by Henry Winstanley, in 1696, enlarged in 1699, and swept away in the great tempest of 1703, when the builder and 5 keepers shared its fate
- 290 Three rare menu cards of the Savage Club, 1 depicting North American Indians and a savage cannibal dance and feast ; very few were issued and still fewer now exist
- 291 A curious old Chinese scientific instrument, a finely carved bone Jap pipe-case, 2 New Guinea armlets, rosary, blessed by the Pope, and 2 bronze axes
- 292 An extremely rare Kikuyu snare for trapping birds and small game, consisting of 74 nooses of sinew attached chainwise to spikes for pegging into the ground and covering a large area

- 293 An ancient Chinese bronze sacrificial cup, of Archaic type, and with fine patination, in perfect condition, from a tomb about 300 B.C. to 200 A.D.
- 294 Old short sword, with inscription on blade, fine dagger with ivory hilt, kris of rare type (silver-mounted), ditto brass sheath, and a scalping knife
- 295 Polynesian paddle, carved all over, and a ditto staff (Isla de Pascua), with human head and eyes inlaid with bone and volcanic stone
- 296 Cromwellian deed, dated 1656 ; 4 documents on one sheet, dated 1652, 1657, 1661, and 1665, relating to the City of Pisa, printing block, and a rare early Great Seal of England
- 297 Fine Fiji club, New Guinea ditto, 2 native ladles, and various curios
- 298 A rare inlaid chief's staff, from Humphrey Island, and various paddles and weapons
- 299 Two rare wooden bowl-shaped cradles, covered with red ochre, from North-West Australia (sometimes these are used for food, but the large ones generally for babies)
- 300 A rare abnormal ostrich egg, beautifully painted, with a betrothal scene symbolizing fecundity (Siam)
- 301 Ditto, but a normal egg
- 302 An interesting Javan knife, the blade being made from an old Dutch sword, with the date, 1768, on each side, probably unique, and a fine dagger of very unusual type
- 303 An unusual churn-shaped wood Norwegian peasant's vessel, painted with scrolls, for cheese making
- 304 A beautiful specimen of mediæval war-horse bridle, of great rarity, and bearing an armourer's mark, M in a shield, possibly denoting Daniello de Castelo Milano of 1475
- 305 Another specimen, of distinct type, but equally fine and rare, and a side portion to a somewhat similar one, with reins ends, showing method of attachment
- 306 A standing solid copper image of Jakshmi, the Goddess of Wealth and Prosperity, early 15th Century, very fine
- 307 Two brass masks, of Kalbhaway, incarnations of Shiva, worn on the chest, very rare

CONDITIONS OF SALE

First.—The highest bidder to be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders the lot in dispute to be put up again and re-sold at the discretion of the auctioneer. The auctioneer's decision to be final. The auctioneer reserves the right to make any alteration in the catalogue.

Second.—No person to advance less than one shilling ; above £2, two shillings and sixpence ; and so on in proportion as the auctioneer shall decide. The auctioneer may, in his discretion, refuse to accept the bidding of any person.

Third.—In the case of any lot on which there is a reserve the auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the Vendor.

Fourth.—Each purchaser is at the time of purchase to give in his name and address, and pay a deposit of five shillings in the pound in part payment or the whole of the purchase-money (if required), in default of which the lot purchased may be put up again and re-sold at the discretion of the auctioneer.

Fifth.—The auctioneer is not responsible for the correct description, genuineness, or authenticity of, or for any default or defect in, any lot, and gives no warranty whatever, expressed or implied, and no compensation shall be payable in respect to any such matters.

Sixth.—Each Lot shall be at the purchaser's risk in all respects from the fall of the hammer, and shall be paid for in full, and taken away with all faults and errors of every description, and neither the Vendor nor Stevens's Auction Rooms Ltd., shall be liable for any damage to the same, or loss from whatever cause arising. The Purchaser shall pay a storage charge of 1/- per Lot per day for any lot not taken away within two days after the Sale.

Lastly.—Upon failure to comply with the above conditions, the money deposited shall be forfeited ; any lot remaining un-cleared may be re-sold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale, together with all incidental expenses and charges, shall be paid by the defaulter.

NO LOTS WILL BE TRANSFERRED.

The Clerk of the Sale has Authority to refuse Cheques.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

First.—The highest bidder to be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders the lot in dispute to be put up again and re-sold at the discretion of the auctioneer. The auctioneer's decision to be final. The auctioneer reserves the right to make any alteration in the catalogue.

Second.—No person to advance less than one shilling ; above £2, two shillings and sixpence ; and so on in proportion as the auctioneer shall decide. The auctioneer may, in his discretion, refuse to accept the bidding of any person.

Third.—In the case of any lot on which there is a reserve the auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the Vendor.

Fourth.—Each purchaser is at the time of purchase to give in his name and address, and pay a deposit of five shillings in the pound in part payment or the whole of the purchase-money (if required), in default of which the lot purchased may be put up again and re-sold at the discretion of the auctioneer.

Fifth.—The auctioneer is not responsible for the correct description, genuineness, or authenticity of, or for any default or defect in, any lot, and gives no warranty whatever, expressed or implied, and no compensation shall be payable in respect to any such matters.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

First.—The highest bidder to be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders the lot in dispute to be put up again and re-sold at the discretion of the auctioneer. The auctioneer's decision to be final. The auctioneer reserves the right to make any alteration in the catalogue.

Second.—No person to advance less than one shilling ; above £2, two shillings and sixpence ; and so on in proportion as the auctioneer shall decide. The auctioneer may, in his discretion, refuse to accept the bidding of any person.

Third.—In the case of any lot on which there is a reserve the auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the Vendor.

Fourth.—Each purchaser is at the time of purchase to give in his name and address, and pay a deposit of five shillings in the pound in part payment or the whole of the purchase-money (if required), in default of which the lot purchased may be put up again and re-sold at the discretion of the auctioneer.

Fifth.—The auctioneer is not responsible for the correct description, genuineness, or authenticity of, or for any default or defect in, any lot, and gives no warranty whatever, expressed or implied, and no compensation shall be payable in respect to any such matters.

Sixth.—Each Lot shall be at the purchaser's risk in all respects from the fall of the hammer, and shall be paid for in full, and taken away with all faults and errors of every description, and neither the Vendor nor Stevens's Auction Rooms Ltd., shall be liable for any damage to the same, or loss from whatever cause arising. The Purchaser shall pay a storage charge of 1/- per Lot per day for any lot not taken away within two days after the Sale.

Lastly.—Upon failure to comply with the above conditions, the money deposited shall be forfeited ; any lot remaining uncleared may be re-sold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale, together with all incidental expenses and charges, shall be paid by the defaulter.

NO LOTS WILL BE TRANSFERRED.

The Clerk of the Sale has Authority to refuse Cheques.
